Elegance and cosiness come into play

Arrive, sit down, feel good: When the ambience is right, everything feels much easier. That's why a piece of seating furniture can sometimes offer a little more – a large, well-formed seat shell, soft upholstery and a design that conveys trend awareness as well as comfort. Whether as an island of tranquillity, as a place of concentrated retreat or as an inviting space in the reception area – se:lounge stands out with versatility and durability at the same time.

Typical application areas for the se:lounge are:

- Intermediate areas in open-plan offices
- Quiet zones & retreats
- Lounge & reception areas
- Management offices

1. The ergonomically shaped backrest and seat upholstery invite you to sit in comfort.
2. The upholstered armrests can be configured independently of the rest of the upholstery. For example, it is also possible to have wipe-clean leather for enhanced hygiene.
3. The sporty shape of the seat shell made of stable and robust material has a light and sound-absorbing effect at the same time.
4. The modern, elegant shape of the ears made of form felt provide protection and privacy.
5. The retrofittable, swivelling shelf offers storage space (shelf always in black) for laptop etc.
6. The ottoman offers an additional feel-good factor, to take time out and put your feet up.
7. The high-quality base rotates 360° and gives the armchair sufficient stability for all positions.

FORM AND FUNCTION

Shaped for comfort

The lounge chair has a one-piece PET felt seat shell. The contour and height of the backrest provide optimum body and head support. The integrated armrests form the side finish. The organic contours convey harmony, whilst the seat pan and the handmade upholstery round off the comfort.

The seat shell of the se:lounge is made of PET felt, which is made from shredded PET bottles and is 100 % recyclable.

VARIATION AND DIVERSITY

Design that is always perfect

The se:lounge can be individually designed: You can select the armrest wings as well as the seat and back upholstery in different colours to match the seat shell. It is also possible to add a writing tablet or an ottoman as an option.
